

Distracted driving simulator coming to New York State Capitol!

WHEN: Tuesday, May 23, 10:00 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

WHERE: Empire State Plaza
Entrance to Legislative Office
Building from Concourse

You're invited to take a spin in a distracted driving simulator equipped with virtual reality technology. Inside a fully functional vehicle, cruise through an animated environment while trying to use a cell phone. Using the vehicle's steering wheel, gas and brake pedals, the driver is tasked with driving while also attempting to text, talk and enter navigation system directions. You can also take the X the TXT pledge and learn about Evan's Law, S.2306/A.3959. Contact canderson@nyia.org for more info.

In partnership with Senator Joseph Robach,
Chair, Senate Transportation Committee
