FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COFFEY HONORED BY NEW YORK INSURANCE ASSOCIATION

Saratoga Springs, N.Y., June 11, 2018—The New York Insurance Association, Inc. (NYIA) honored Steven Coffey with the Chair’s Distinguished Service Award at the association’s annual conference May 31 in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. Coffey is vice president of Broome Co-operative Insurance Company (BCIC) and until recently served as president and chief executive officer of the company. Coffey recently retired from full time responsibilities after 12 years with Broome Co-operative and more than 40 years in the insurance industry.

“Steve is a true example of a great leader,” said Elizabeth Heck, NYIA chair and president and chief executive officer of Greater New York Mutual Insurance Company. “His unwavering patience, unprecedented insight and notable experience have made him an asset to NYIA and a cherished principal of the property and casualty insurance industry.”

Coffey began his insurance career at Surety Reinsurance Company. Coffey progressed through various positions to president and chief executive officer with the company. He subsequently served in senior management positions at Guy Carpenter, The Hartford and Aon. He joined BCIC in 2006 to lead the company’s modernization initiatives, which included strategic investments in technology and attaining an A.M. Best financial rating.

He has been a board member of the New York Insurance Association since 2011 and has served on many different association committees. Coffey previously served as chairman of a predecessor organization of the New York Insurance Association, the New York Insurance Alliance. He currently sits on the board of directors as vice president for Broome Co-operative Insurance Company. Coffey studied Economics at The College of Brockport—State University of New York.
